

November 18, 2016

Getting Into The Christmas Spirit A Philly POPS Christmas CD!

Adding to the beautiful Christmas-themed selections in her shop, Jo Colino of the Spirit of Christmas in Mount Holly, NJ, is thrilled to offer customers a brand new Christmas item -- A Philly POPS Christmas CD. It was recorded live in concert last Christmas season, in December 2015. Photographed here, on delivery of the CDs, is Jo Colino (left) and Dottie Giordano, a Moorestown resident and wife of The Philly POPS President, Frank Giordano.

The music on the CD is conducted by the acclaimed David Charles Abell who led the 65-piece POPS orchestra, guest vocalist (and Broadway veteran) Lisa Vroman, the Philadelphia Boys Choir, the African Episcopal Church of St. Thomas Gospel Choir, the POPS Festival Chorus, organist Peter Richard Conte – for a total of 325 musicians on stage – in the 2015 Philly POPS Christmas concert. The songs include such favorites as Deck the Halls, I'll Be Home for Christmas, Joy to the World and many more.

This year's Philly POPS Christmas concerts begin December 2, 2016 with nine more performances until December 18. Held in Verizon Hall at The Kimmel Center, it is a very popular Philadelphia tradition. Maestro Michael Krajewski will lead the audience through an all-new spectacular lineup of exciting musical arrangements, featuring internationally acclaimed pianist and vocalist Tony DeSare and all the special musical guests included in the recording.

The Spirit of Christmas is a beautiful historic shop with a range of Christmas décor including the finest Christmas ornaments and designer decorations including Music Boxes that always light the faces of the young at heart. It is located at 14 White Street, Mount Holly, NJ. For more information, call 609 518-1700 or visit <http://www.spiritofchristmasnj.com/>

For more information about the Philly POPS Christmas concerts, visit www.phillypops.org. A Philly POPS Christmas is also available on iTunes.