THE MORNING CALL

Sally Struthers stars in 'Clue' at Bucks

Bucks County Playhouse is presenting the world premiere production of the comedy mystery "Clue: On Stage," featuring two-time Emmy winner Sally Struthers as Mrs. Peacock. Tony nominee Erin Dilly plays Mrs. White.

"Clue" is adapted from the cult classic film. The show runs May 2-20.

On a dark and stormy night, six guests, plus a butler and a maid, assemble for a dinner party at the home of Mr. Boddy. When their host turns up dead, it is clear that no one is safe. Soon the guests are racing to find the killer and keep the body count from stacking up.

"We are very excited to launch our 2017 season with the world premiere of 'Clue: On Stage' directed by Hunter Foster," says Bucks County Playhouse Executive Producer Robyn Goodman. "Based on an iconic Paramount film and the beloved Hasbro game, 'Clue' not only has broad appeal, but also will feature our biggest, most complicated physical production yet, with the kind of tricks and stagecraft that only scenic designer Anna Louizos can deliver."

Struthers is best known for her role as Gloria in the groundbreaking TV series "All in the Family." She has also starred in the Fox series "9 to 5" and her own CBS series "Gloria" as well as on the CBS comedy "Still Standing" and the CW network's "Gilmore Girls." Struthers recently rejoined the Gilmore cast for Netflix's four-part limited revival last fall.

Dilly received Tony and Outer Critics Circle Best Actress nominations for playing Truly Scrumptious in "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang." She also appeared on

Broadway in "Follies," "The Boys from Syracuse," "Into the Woods," "Nice Work If You Can Get It" and "A Christmas Story."

Kevin Carolan (Broadway's "Newsies") is Colonel Mustard, Brian J. Carter is Mr. Green, Clifton Duncan is Professor Plum, Lindsay Nicole Chambers (Broadway's "Lysistrata Jones," "Hairspray") is Miss Scarlet, Carson Elrod (Broadway's "Peter and the Starcatcher") is Wadsworth and Claire Simba is Yvette. The cast also includes Cassandra Dupler and William Youmans (Broadway's "Wicked," "Bright Star" and "Billy Elliot") playing multiple roles.
