

June 21, 2017

"Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story" at the Kimmel Center

The popular jukebox musical Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story opens Saturday, June 24 at the Kimmel Center, fresh from its remount at the Bucks County Playhouse. From his early days in Lubbock, Texas to the "day the music died," the production traces the short but influential life of the seminal pioneer of rock 'n roll music with more than 20 of Holly's greatest hits including "That'll Be The Day," "Peggy Sue," "Oh Boy," and "Not Fade Away."

Directed by Tony nominee Hunter Foster with choreography by Lorin Latarro, the cast of Broadway, off-Broadway and regional talent is led by John Dewey as Buddy, through July 9, 300 S. Broad Street, Philadelphia. Photo by Joan Marcus.