ROTHKOFF LAW GROUP
PRESENTS THE FUTURE OF DEMENTIA CARE
NOVEMBER 9, 2017

Evesham, NJ (October 11, 2017) – It’s hard to imagine what dementia care might look like in the year 2030. On November 9, Jerold E. Rothkoff will present a seminar about how technology will assist with resident care and what future services long-term care providers may provide. The CEU seminar will be held at Artis Senior Living Evesham, 302 Lippincott Drive, Evesham, NJ 08053. Registration and breakfast will begin at 8:30 am, and the presentation will be 9 am to 11 am. Jerry Rothkoff, founder and principal of Rothkoff Law Group (RLG), hopes the program will help families and the community think about the future of dementia care. He said, “It’s important we look ahead, imagine the future and constantly improve care for loved ones diagnosed with dementia.”

Jerold E. Rothkoff, is a practicing New Jersey and Pennsylvania attorney, the Principal of the Rothkoff Group and dedicates his practice to serve clients in the areas of elder law, life care planning, asset protection, estate planning, and long-term care advocacy. Jerry Rothkoff is past president of the NJ Chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, Past President of the Life Care Planning Law Firms Association (LCPLFA), and former chair of the NJ State Bar Association, Elder Law Section. Jerry Rothkoff has been and continues to be, an outspoken advocate for the rights and future of the elderly and disabled. Two CEU’s will be available for social workers, nursing home administrators, assisted living administrators and case managers. RSVP by November 6, call 856-810-0007 or email Evesham@artismgmt.com.
