Meet 'The Nerd' at Bucks County Playhouse

There are so many fine plays that have stood the test of time and been revived regularly. Some are timeless and express universal themes. Others reflect a comedic force that keeps audiences laughing years after they first appeared. Larry Shue's, "The Nerd," which opened in Milwaukee in 1981, and played in England a year later, ran for over 400 performances on Broadway, some 30 years ago. Sadly, this comedy doesn't have the staying power to make it relevant or humorous enough to carry it to 2017, where it is currently playing at Bucks County Playhouse.
