New Stand-Alone Memory Care Community Breaks Ground for Sarasota-Area Seniors

Poet's Walk arrives in beautiful Sarasota, FL

The demand for services to support the needs of seniors with Alzheimer's disease, dementia and other forms of memory loss continues to grow and affect families worldwide. Poet's Walk Sarasota, a Spring Hills Senior Communities Memory Care Community, is proud to bring comprehensive Alzheimer's and dementia care in a beautiful, luxurious setting to Sarasota, FL. The community will be located at 5158 North Honore Avenue and will open in summer 2017. The atmosphere is designed for people in need of a safe environment, with a comfortable setting, where they can thrive as independently as possible with the assistance they require from a team of specially-trained professionals. It will accommodate up to 62 residents.

Alexander Markowits, President/CEO of Spring Hills Senior Communities, is excited about the company's growth in Florida and the opportunity to expand the job market in the Sarasota area. He said, "We look forward to bringing much needed memory care services to Florida. We believe in hiring the right, dedicated individuals from the local area, who are committed to quality care. The expansion of our company in Sarasota is our first community to open in Florida and offers us the important opportunity to extend our services throughout the country as we are opening more Poet's Walk locations in Nevada, Texas and Virginia."

Spring Hills Senior Communities has created a proprietary memory care environment that provides an engaging atmosphere that promotes positivity and encourages a compassionate person-centered approach. Poet's Walk Sarasota will provide structured care programs that combine the stability of a routine with independence and autonomy for a healthy lifestyle. The Spring Cottage Memory Care Program, a nationwide program for Spring Hills, is distinctively designed for persons in all stages of Alzheimer's disease and Dementia. Spring Hills' holistic approach to senior living through their Signature Touch programs, engages the mind, body, and spirit of the people they care for.
