

<http://www.mcall.com/entertainment/arts/mc-ent-gp-sunday-arts-michener-wyeth-kings-singers-20180109-story.html>

THE MORNING CALL

January 12, 2018

Lehigh Valley art, classical and theater highlights: Henrietta Wyeth, King's Singers, Lesli Margherita

Lesli Margherita returns to Bucks County Playhouse with a one-woman show Jan. 20. (Bucks County Playhouse / CONTRIBUTED PHOTO)

Olivier Award winner and Broadway star Lesli Margherita (“Matilda,” “Dames at Sea,” “Zorro”) returns to the Bucks County Playhouse in New Hope with a new one-woman show at 8 p.m. Jan. 20.

“This Broad’s Way” will feature classics, Broadway showstoppers, and new twists on favorites. Margherita takes the stage with her signature sass and wit to share stories about how she’s carved her niche in show biz.

Margherita made her Broadway debut originating the role of Mrs. Wormwood in “Matilda The Musical.” After more than 1,000 performances, she crossed the street to The Helen Hayes to star as the diva Mona Kent in the Broadway premiere of Randy Skinner’s “Dames at Sea.” In September 2016, Margherita returned to the role she originated to close out the Broadway run of “Matilda.”

Margherita has recurring roles on three television dramas: “Homeland,” “Instinct” and “Seven Seconds.” Last fall she starred opposite Topher Grace, Taye Diggs and JC Chasez in the feature film “Opening Night.” Over the holidays, she starred as Cindy Lou Who in the world premiere of “Who’s Holiday!” at the Westside Theater.

Tickets $40 and $55. Info: bcptheater.org, 215-862-2121.