Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story

By Denny Dyroff

On May 7, the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts (300 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, www.kimmelcenter.org) will hold a pop-up sock hop on the sidewalk in front of the Kimmel Center to cheer on runners in the Broad Street Run and celebrate the upcoming run of “Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story” this summer.

From 9-11 a.m., the public is invited to come down to the Kimmel Center in their best Buddy Holly or 1950s-inspired outfit and walk away with tickets to the show.

There will be a DJ spinning Buddy Holly’s top hits and WOGL-FM will be on site cheering on runners and handing out Buddy Holly-inspired sunglasses.

“Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story” is presented by the Kimmel Center in partnership with Bucks County Playhouse. The show will run at the Playhouse from May 27-June 17 and at the Kimmel Center’s Perelman Theater from June 24-July 9.
