Bucks County Playhouse breaks box office records with '42nd Street'

NEW HOPE, Pa. - The musical "42nd Street" has broken box office records at the Bucks County Playhouse.

In honor of the record breaking, New Hope Mayor Larry Keller led a dedication ceremony renaming Main Street to 42nd Street.

Tessa Grady, the lead who plays Peggy Sawyer, taught the mayor, police chief and fire chief how to tap dance.

The show runs through Aug. 4.
