

July 20, 2018

It's a toe-tapping musical weekend in Bucks County! Visitors and locals alike can groove to the tunes of the 60s and 70s at the Bristol Riverside Theatre, enjoy an exhilarating Broadway performance at the Bucks County Playhouse and watch Lee Brice make his Xcite Center debut at Parx Casino all in one weekend!

The Bristol Riverside Theatre is transporting audiences back in time to enjoy their Time in a Bottle Summer Music Fest performance, featuring some of the best tunes from the 60s and 70s! Visit the Bucks County Playhouse to discover the magic of Broadway with its biggest show yet, 42nd Street. Plus, country superstar Lee Brice will perform his chart-topping hits live at the Xcite Center for the very first time!

Here is a guide for details on this weekend's must-see events around the County.

Friday, July 20

42nd Street at the Bucks County Playhouse

Celebrate the magic of Broadway with one of show business's most beloved fables! Peggy Sawyer, a talented young performer straight off the bus from Allentown, PA, arrives in New York armed with her tap shoes and big dreams. Can she dance her way from chorus girl to star?

When: July 20 – 22, check online for showtimes

Where: Bucks County Playhouse

Cost: $40 - $80