

- At the Shore

Ways to have fun while we wait for the sun

- By RYAN LOUGHLIN

Trade in the blues for some red-hot jazz

The South Jersey Jazz Society holds a variety of musical events no matter what time of year it is, but our pick for the one to catch this month is the CD release party for "Peace and Love," the new album from TJP (formerly known as The Jost Project). Paul Jost and his band will set up shop over at Gregory's in Somers Point from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 16. It's sure to be a night of some of the most incredible musicianship you will see all year. Gregory's is located at 900 Shore Road in Somers Point. Go to SouthJerseyJazz.org for more.