

http://www.buckscountycouriertimes.com/life-style/best-bets-for-the-week-ahead/article_635a6af9-8516-51aa-a501-9d06a4d943dc.html

BUCKS COUNTY Courier Times

Best Bets for the week ahead

'Rocky Horror' back in New Hope

If it's Halloween season, it must be time for "The Rocky Horror Show" at the Bucks County Playhouse at 70 S. Main St. in New Hope. The 1973 stage musical by Richard O'Brien, which inspired the 1975 cinema cult classic "The Rocky Horror Picture Show," pays tribute to horror and sci-fi B movies and features a rousing soundtrack with crowd-pleasers like "Time Warp" and "Sweet Transvestite." This production stars Randy Harrison (Showtime's "Queer as Folk") as mad scientist Frank N. Furter, and features a talented cast, many with Broadway experience, including Nick Cearley and Catherine Ricafort as hapless travelers Brad and Janet, Nick Adams as the chiseled monster Rocky, Van Hughes as Riff Raff and Jeff Hiller as the narrator, Eddie, and Dr. Scott. The production is directed by Hunter Foster, a Tony-nominated actor for "Little Shop of Horrors" (2004). The show opens — when else — on Friday the 13th and continues through Oct. 29. Tickets: $40-$70. Information: 215-862-2121; bcptheater.org.

A scene from last year's production of "The Rocky Horror Show" at the Bucks County Playhouse.
PHOTO BY DAN GRAMKEE / BUCKS COUNTY PLAYHOUSE

The music video "Mission to Mars" was named Best of Fest at the 2017 Bucks Fever FilmFest.
COURTESY OF BUCKS FEVER FILMFEST

John Poveromo is on a bill with Julia Scotti this weekend at the Comedy Works in Bristol Township.
COURTESY OF JOHN POVEROMO

