CELEBRATING SUCCESS OF “42ND STREET” AT BUCKS COUNTY
PLAYHOUSE – MAYOR LARRY KELLER OF NEW HOPE RENAMES MAIN STREET 42ND STREET CAST MEMBERS TAP DANCED BROADWAY’S
TESSA GRADY (PEGGY SAWYER) TAUGHT MAYOR AND POLICE CHIEF TO TAP DANCE

Members of the New Hope Community, including New Hope Borough Mayor Larry Keller, joined with Bucks County Playhouse in celebrating the success of the current production of “42nd Street” — the largest production in the Playhouse’s history — by ceremonially renaming Main Street in honor of the show.

Crowds gathered as the Mayor and Producing Director of the Playhouse, Alexander Fraser, unveiled a temporary “42nd Street” sign. New Hope Police Chief Michael Cummings and Firefighter Kevin Doherty shared in the celebration and they all learned to tap dance from Broadway’s Tessa Grady who is playing the role of Peggy Sawyer in the production. Eight cast members from the show, which in addition to Broadway actors includes rising stars from the Playhouse’s famed Apprentice Program, thrilled everyone with their “42nd Street” tap dance performance.
