

http://www.lehighvalleylive.com/hunterdon-county/index.ssf/2017/05/delaware\_river\_towns\_ready\_for.html

lehighvalleylive

May 10, 2017

New Hope Celebrates will kick-off the 14th annual Pride Week and Weekend Celebration on Sunday.

It begins with the unfurling of a 50-foot Rainbow Equality Flag at the top of the Delaware House Building, which currently houses the Starbucks, on Bridge Street in New Hope, according to a news release.

The events continue in Lambertville with the second annual pig out, a pig roast hosted by Dish Catering at the Lambertville House Hotel Courtyard on Bridge Street.

Entertainment during the week includes performances of the new production of Clue at the historic Bucks County Playhouse. The play stars Sally Struthers and Erin Dilly. New Hope Celebrates, along with the playhouse, are partnering in a fundraiser with a special cocktail reception on May 19.