MEETING THE CAST IN THE PARRY MANSION IN NEW HOPE ... OF THE WORLD PREMIERE OF “CLUE: ON STAGE”

Photo by Sharla Feldscher

NEW HOPE, PA (April 27, 2017) -- Appropriately set in the historic Parry Mansion of New Hope, the highly-acclaimed cast of “Clue: On Stage”, directed by Hunter Foster, descended from the central stairway with their weapons in their hands to meet guests on Wednesday, April 26, 2107. It was a preview to the opening of the World Premiere of “Clue: On Stage” taking place at Bucks County Playhouse from May 2 through May 20, 2017. The cast is loving every minute of preparing for this hysterical play – a comedy, mystery with a musical backdrop by composer Michael Holland. In Parry Mansion, the home of the New Hope Historical Society, they went from the “dining room” to “the lounge” and then gathered in “the kitchen” playing, what else?, the game of CLUE.

ABOUT BUCKS COUNTY PLAYHOUSE

The historic Bucks County Playhouse, a nonprofit 501(c)3 organization, is the oldest and largest professional Equity performing arts center in Bucks County. Under the direction of four Broadway producers -- Tony Award-winning producers, Alexander Fraser (Producing Director) and Robyn Goodman (Executive Producer) with Producers Stephen Kocis and Josh Fiedler, the Playhouse provides first class professional theatrical entertainment as well as community events, partnerships and arts education programming for visitors and residents of New Hope, Doylestown, Lambertville and the Delaware Valley.

Located between Philadelphia and New York, Bucks County Playhouse opened in 1939 in a converted 1790 gristmill after a group of community activists, led by Broadway orchestrator Don Walker and playwright Moss Hart, rallied to save the building. The Playhouse quickly became one of the country's most famous regional theaters, featuring a roster of American theatrical royalty including Helen Hayes, Kitty Carlisle, George S. Kaufman, Grace Kelly, Robert Redford, Bert Lahr, Walter Matthau, Angela Lansbury, Bernadette Peters, Alan Alda, Tyne Daly, Liza Minnelli and Audra McDonald and remained in continuous operation until December 2010. In 2012, the Playhouse re-opened thanks to the efforts of the Bridge Street Foundation, the nonprofit family foundation of Kevin and Sherri Daugherty, and Broadway producer Jed Bernstein.

Since its renovation, significant productions include Terrence McNally's "Mothers and Sons" starring Tyne Daly, which moved to Broadway and was nominated for two Tony Awards, and "Misery" by William Goldman based on the Stephen King novel which also went on to a Broadway run in the 2015-16 season. Two of the Playhouse's recent productions -- "Company" starring Justin Guarini, and William Finn's "The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee" -- were named by Wall Street Journal to its "Best of Theatre" list for 2015. The Playhouse's productions of "Steel Magnolias" and "Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story" broke box office records in 2016.

ABOUT THE NEW HOPE HISTORICAL SOCIETY'S PARRY MANSION

The elegant eighteenth century Georgian-style Parry Mansion at 45 South Main Street is in the heart of New Hope's historic district, and serves as the headquarters for the New Hope Historical Society. It was the home of the "father of New Hope", Benjamin Parry, and five generations of the Parry family. The New Hope Historical Society purchased this beautiful structure from Margaret Parry Lang in 1966 and, arguably, saved it from the wrecking ball. It is located across the street from the Parry Barn, which the founding members had saved from demolition in 1958. It is opened on weekends only, beginning in May. Please visit www.newhopehs.org
