

<http://www.philly.com/philly/entertainment/arts/philadelphia-musicals-bodyguard-buddy-holly-hedwig-rock-of-ages.html>

Spring Arts Guide

Thursday, Feb. 2, 2017

There's a lot going on in Philadelphia in the next couple of months, from blow out concerts to blockbuster movies, from comedians that will give you the giggles and musicals that will make your heart sing. That's a lot to wade through. Good thing our critics picked out the best that the Philadelphia arts scene has to offer.

by John Timpane, Staff Writer

Philly sings, Philly dances, and this spring will be good for it, with all sorts of musicals trooping through town.

MUSICALS:

Buddy: The Buddy Holly Story (May 27-June 17, Bucks County Playhouse; June 24-July 9, Perelman Theater). Buddy will play the BCP, break down, travel south on I-95 to the Perelman, and set right back up. (BCP: 215-862-2121, bcptheater.org; Perelman: 215-670-2300, kimmelcenter.org)