Continuing a Halloween-season tradition, The Rocky Horror Show will return to the Bucks County Playhouse October 13 for a limited run at the Pennsylvania venue through October 29.

Directed by Hunter Foster with choreography by Lorin Latarro, the cast will feature Randy Harrison as Dr. Frank-n-Furter, Nick Adams as Rocky, Nick Cearley as Brad, Katie Anderson as Columbia, Danielle Diniz as a Phantom, Catherine Ricafort as Janet, Van Hughes as Riff Raff, Olivia Griffin as Magenta, Jeff Hiller as Narrator/Dr. Scott/Eddy, and Julian Ramos as a Phantom.

“We are excited with the response The Rocky Horror Show received in its return last year and thrilled to be able to expand the performance schedule for 2017,” said producer Stephen Kocis in a statement. “The Rocky Horror Show has always been a great party show and has tremendous appeal to the Boomer Generation. The revised late-night schedule on weekends provides diehard Rocky Horror fans a more convenient time to enjoy this wickedly fun musical at the Playhouse.

The creative team includes scenic designers David L. Arsnauld and Wilson Chin, costume designer Nicole V. Moody, lighting designer Travis McHale, sound designer Bart Fasbender, and music director Will Shuler.

The Rocky Horror Show, with book, music, and lyrics by Richard O'Brien, served as inspiration for the 1975 classic cult film, The Rocky Horror Picture Show. It follows innocent couple Brad and Janet as they seek shelter at a mysterious old castle, where they encounter transvestite Dr. Frank N Furter and his "perfect" creation: Rocky.
