

SOUTH JERSEYTM MAGAZINE

May 2018

SouthernExposure

HIT OR MISS

Hit

Campbell Soup Co. was recently ranked No. 1 on Reputation Institute's annual list of the country's top 100 most reputable companies.

Spring Hills Cherry Hill Assisted Living Community earned Health Care Association of New Jersey Foundation's "Advanced Standing" quality distinction based on its performance.

The Camden County Library System has implemented about 50 noise-canceling headphones for children with auditory sensitivities.

A Shady Lane Nursing Home employee filed a lawsuit against Gloucester County Improvement Authority, claiming she was subjected to harassment and the facility did nothing to help.

Rowan College at Burlington County's President Paul Drayton resigned citing medical reasons. This comes after he spent months on leave following a discrimination complaint.

A Gloucester Township Police Department officer faces a count of simple assault after he allegedly smacked a juvenile victim, who was already handcuffed.

Miss

