

The Intelligencer

February 28, 2018

Entertainment & Life

Best bets in entertainment for the week ahead

"The Pawnshop" is one of three Charlie Chaplin shorts that will screen at the Bucks County Playhouse Friday with live musical accompaniment. [COURTESY OF THE MUTUAL FILM CORP.]

A look at upcoming entertainment events in Bucks County.

Movies and music

Audiences can enjoy the comedic genius of film legend Charlie Chaplin with an added twist Friday night when the Bucks County Playhouse at 70 S. Main St. in New Hope presents "Not So Silent Cinema." Three classic Chaplin shorts — "The Pawnshop" (1916), "The Cure" (1917) and "The Adventurer" (1917) — will be screened, with live musical accompaniment from the New River Ensemble. "Not So Silent Cinema" is a project by Philadelphia composer Brendan Cooney, who pens new scores to classic silent films and then performs them live. The ensemble features Cooney on piano, Martha Hyde on clarinet and Lisa Liske-Doorandish on cello. The 75-minute program begins at 8 p.m. Tickets: $25. Information: 215-862-2121; bcptheater.org